MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From safari.....

This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad!

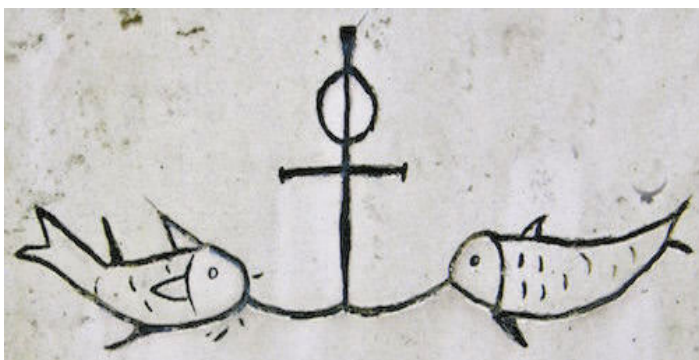

This is the day of Resurrection. Let us be illumined by the feast.

Let us embrace each other.

Let us call “brothers” and “sisters” even those that hate us, and forgive all by the Resurrection.
(from the Eastern rite)

The 50 days of Easter begins with resounding Alleluias! Yet, as I write it looks and feels like late February and early March. We live midst a frozen sea, waves towering over our heads suspended in time. Although I am growing tired of imitating Moses and parting the sea. (Shoveling sidewalks and patio) Below this frozen sea, life awaits to spring forth, soon tulips, hyacinths, and dandelions will brighten the landscape. Let us pray that the snow melt does not bring devastating damage.

The sea of frozen water around us reminds me of the early Christian symbols of fish and anchor. These symbols marked their homes and tombs. The image below combines both the anchor and fish.

The anchor is known as the “Cross of Hope.” In Hebrews 6:19 we read, “We have this hope as an anchor of the soul, sure and firm.” Christian hope proclaims that God is faithful to promises. Jesus is the promised messiah, who through his passion, death, and resurrection has freed us from sin and death. The resurrection assures us we are never alone. God is there to share in our joy. While God does not spare us from harm (illness, heartbreak, hardship), God will be with us in every trial and bring us to everlasting life.

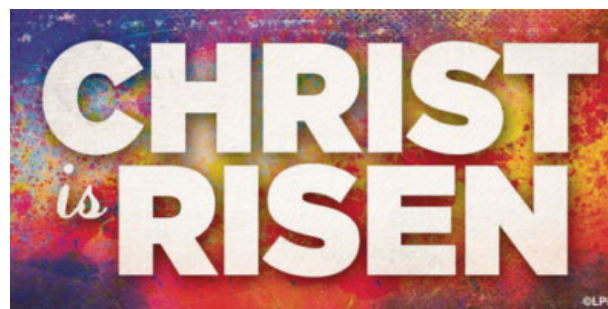

As Easter people we are called to pass on the message of the “Cross of Hope”. To encourage others to set their anchor in God’s love. From the third Mass for various needs, we pray, “(Holy Father) Keep us attentive to the needs of all, that sharing their grief and pain, their joy and hope, we may faithfully bring them the good news of salvation and go forward with them along the way of your Kingdom.”

Have a joy filled Easter Season!

STEWARDSHIP AND EVANGELIZATION
LIVING A LIFE OF DISCIPLESHIP

“Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’” John 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships – with God and each other. When you see yourself as a beloved son or daughter of God, you tend to see others the same way, too – just as God, our Father, sees us.

RCIA

Are you thinking about joining the Catholic Church?
Is there someone you know who might be interested in learning more about the Catholic faith?
Do you have questions about the RCIA process?
Have you received some of the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist & Confirmation) but not all of them?

RCIA classes are starting on Saturday, April 22 from 3:45-4:45 pm at Sacred Heart with meetings every other Saturday for the Inquiry Period. If you or the person you know are interested but don't belong to Sacred Heart but to another parish in our Catholic Community, we can move the classes around, so we have meetings at your home parish too. If you have any questions about RCIA or becoming Catholic, please reach out to Sandee Kremers at 320-252-1363 x403 or skremers@stfrancissartell.org.
