MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

“How’s your prayer life?” I have a vivid memory of that question from my first days of the seminary 40 years ago, and it is a worthy reflection for each of us.

I raised that question about three years ago in this space, when we were immersed in COVID-19 and its many impacts; the struggles to find a just social order; political turmoil; even the formation of ACCs and the transitions it brings. All of those factors naturally disorient and disrupt our routines and expectations; yet resiliency allows us to persevere, to learn from the difficult times, and to cherish things we might otherwise take for granted.

Since that time, we have settled a bit into our new relationships as an ACC. We have welcomed a new bishop. We have resumed most of our pre-pandemic activities in life, though aftereffects and scars still linger. The war in Ukraine, rising prices for the basic necessities of life, ongoing political tensions, the uncertainty about our future in the parishes with fewer clergy ... all of this can continue to cause us anxiety and weigh down our spirits.

Amid change and uncertainty, where do we find stability? In our electronic age, we are bombarded by information and commentary. How do we sort it out?

I still don’t pray enough, but I do know that prayer is essential to keep a healthy perspective. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (2659-60) reminds us: We learn to pray at certain moments by hearing the Word of the Lord and sharing in his Paschal mystery, but his Spirit is offered us at all times, in the events of each day, to make prayer spring up from us. Jesus’ teaching about praying to our Father is in the same vein as his teaching about providence: time is in the Father’s hands; it is in the present that we encounter him, not yesterday nor tomorrow, but today: “O that today you would hearken to his voice! Harden not your hearts.” Prayer in the events of each day and each moment is one of the secrets of the kingdom revealed to “little children,” to the servants of Christ, to the poor of the Beatitudes. It is right and good to pray so that the coming of the kingdom of justice and peace may influence the march of history, but it is just as important to bring the help of prayer into humble, everyday situations; all forms of prayer can be the leaven to which the Lord compares the kingdom.

So learning to pray is a life-long pursuit, but it is not so much a skill we master as a disposition we foster: an openness to the presence of God, each day. People pray in different ways; as the Catechism puts it, there are as many ways to pray as there are souls. Just as our human relationships are unique, so is each person’s connection with God.

Part IV of the Catechism is all about the spiritual life. It is different from the more doctrinal sections in Parts I-III; Part IV is more like spiritual reading with encouragement, consolation, guidance, and hope. Among the most common themes in Part IV is the word “today.” That is, our spiritual lives are not a separate part of our existence, not just a set of religious practices and pious exercises when time permits. Rather, Catholic spirituality embraces all of life, precisely when and where we find ourselves.

The Rosary is helpful in this way, since it is a set of mysteries that are really patterns of how God works in human lives. What mystery are you living, today? Are you being called to a task, like Mary in the Annunciation? Are you bringing the hidden Lord to another, like the Visitation? Are you living a share in the Agony in the Garden, wrestling with God’s will? Are you carrying the Cross of suffering, illness, rejection, fear? Are you experiencing a new beginning in a kind of Resurrection, or using the Gifts of the Spirit to bring hope to another?

Someday, when life’s journey is complete, prayer will be our endless future: to be in God’s presence fully and perfectly. We need to cultivate our spiritual lives, lest that relationship with God gradually dwindle; but the spiritual cannot become an excuse or an escape from our earthly responsibilities. That balance is behind St. Benedict’s motto: ora et labora, to pray and to work. I find the same balance in the familiar story of Martha and Mary (Luke 10:38-42), both of them serving the Body of Christ in complementary ways.

So the question, “how’s your prayer life?”, is not only about how much time we spend in prayer but really about how we are open to God in both reflection and action, the balance of ora et labora. May you find in your time with God, whatever form it takes each day, that peace the world cannot give.

STEWARDSHIP AND EVANGELIZATION
LIVING A LIFE OF DISCIPLESHIP

“Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father.” Matthew 10:32

Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak? Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!

YOUNG ADULT ACTIVITIES

Theology on Draft

Thank you to all who have attended our Theology on Draft series this season. Please take the time to scan the QR Code and complete a short survey to help us with planning the 2023 - 2024 TOD season. If you didn't join us this year for TOD, please consider taking the survey. If you have questions or need assistance, please contact Jason Prigge.

Young Adult Needs Assessment

The Young Adult Team for the One in Christ Catholic Community needs your voice. This Assessment serves as a continuation to the Synod called by Pope Francis in 2021. Your voice plays a vital role in ensuring we are listening and meeting your needs along with the needs of others when we consider ministry with Young Adults. If you are a young adult aged 18-39, please take the time to complete this 10-15 minute assessment. If you feel inclined, we also encourage you to share this assessment with your family and friends. Your submission will remain anonymous unless you leave your contact information for a follow-up.

If you are having difficulty completing the form, have any questions, or would prefer an In-person conversation, please contact Jason Prigge, Young Adult Minister for One in Christ, for any assistance.

NEW Pray & Play

Join us for an exciting new initiative for young adults and young families! On select Tuesdays, young adults and their young children (toddler - Kindergartenish) are invited for Daily Mass at Sacred Heart (5:30 PM) and then to the playground to play. This is a great opportunity for young adult parents to enjoy fellowship while kids have an opportunity to play and make new friends! If you'd like to pack your family a picnic dinner, that is encouraged. If the weather doesn't cooperate (rain), Daily Mass would obviously still take place but playing on the playground would be cancelled. If you have questions or are interested in learning more, text Jason Prigge (320.281.9486).

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Child/Parent Group Do you have at least one child under 2? Are you looking to connect with other parents in our parish community? We have a group of families that meet the 4th Monday of the month. Please join us tomorrow, June 26th from 5:45-7:15pm. We will start the evening with a prayer, pizza and then play at the park. If your child is too young to play at the park, we just hang out and visit with the other parents. If the weather is not good, we will meet in the youth room. If you can RSVP to Vicki at vsanborn@sacredheartsaukrapids.org by noon on Monday, that would be great so I know how much pizza to order.

Festival Keep an eye out in the next few days for the festival letter. This letter gives the schedule for the festival and asks for donations to make the festival even more successful!! Items may be brought in to donate starting August 1.

LITURGY UPDATE

To better serve those with mobility issues, our extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion gladly bring the Eucharist to those who cannot participate in the Communion procession at Mass. Those who are capable of joining the procession are asked to join the rest of the assembly in the usual manner. Communion brought to the back of the church is a gesture of liturgical hospitality for those who need it and should not be viewed as a mere convenience for those nearby. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops notes that liturgical processions are "a sign of the pilgrim Church, the body of those who believe in Christ, on their way to the Heavenly Jerusalem." Next time you are in the Communion procession take notice of all of the believers moving forward in faith.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Please add Gloria, Troy, Frank & Janice Brownie and Carol Fleck to your prayers. If you know of anyone who needs our prayers and wants to be put on the prayer list, please call 320-251-8115.

Sacred Heart also has a prayer chain. Please call 320-492-9361, 320-252-3401 or the Parish Office at 320-251-8115 if you have a prayer request.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was in middle school, there were times I didn't want my fellow students to see my parents drop me off or pick me up in the school parking lot. I was embarrassed of my parents. Why? I have no idea. Maybe it was our station wagon. Or I didn't want to look like a little kid. But in retrospect that was a silly thing to do. I was a kid. And I had two parents who loved me and had built a wonderful family. I was afraid of the other kids' judgment. How silly! I should have been afraid of forgetting or downplaying my family, which is where my identity had its deep roots.

This is a way to understand Jesus' words to his disciples this Sunday, when he says, "Don't be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." Fear, in this sense, refers to where we find our deepest identity and our highest love. That's why Jesus says next that when we acknowledge him before others, he will acknowledge us before the Father. It doesn't mean we're brash or boastful. But rather we unhesitatingly and humbly embrace our identity as followers of Jesus and children of God the Father. After all, if we love who we are and where we come from, who cares what the other kids think about us?
