MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From Safari

My recent vacation was to Rochester to explore sights and sounds in southeastern Minnesota. One venue I visited was the Rochester Art Center. One of director quipped you will find no dead people here.

In other words, all the exhibits were by living artists. One intriguing exhibit is entitled "Walk with us". The exhibit described as an international, walking-based art exhibition in which fifteen artists share their discoveries and artistic extrapolations from the social, physical, and psychic landscapes they explored while walking. One group of artists picked anything they found on their walks, including bird droppings. Through various techniques they were able to place a dab of each item in a grid like pattern on the canvas.

This may beg the question, what is art? Several years ago, while on sabbatical at Notre Dame University, home of the Fighting Irish, I took an art class. I remember the instructor saying that art is often determined by money. A particular artist, a style of painting becomes popular as many will find the works visually satisfying physically, emotionally, and or spirituality.

In the world of artists and art collectors, the works of art, are comments on society. There is much discussion about techniques and material used. The living conditions and where the artist lives influence a style of art. As a result, a piece of art can have a depth of meaning and insight to the viewer.

Much like art, scripture has many layers. The bible contains the real presence of God's Word, speaking to us through various writers. The scriptures are the living word of God, as one passage can bring us different insights. To gain a deeper insight into a passage many scripture scholars explore the Sitz im Leben (setting in life). In other words, the scholars, explore, among factors, when a text was written, what was happening in the world at that time of writing, the literary.

As a backdrop to today's gospel, it is good to know that in Jesus' time the shared meal was an important statement about social status. Most meals in Jesus' time were attended by people of the same social rank. The fact that the ruler of the Pharisees invited Jesus to dine at his house indicates that the Pharisees accepted Jesus as a social equal.

At the time of Jesus, accepting an invitation to dinner obligated a guest to return the favor. It was not uncommon for guests to decline the invitation, especially if they realized that returning the favor was more than they could or cared to handle. This quid pro quo was a necessary and common practice among equals. To invite people unable to return the favor was viewed as cultural suicide. Peers viewing such behavior would not invite you to future gathering.

Jesus' challenge in the gospel is to see all as equal peers and to reach out to others with no other agenda than being God's heart of mercy, voice of hope, and hands of justice.

Ultimately God determines true honor and will reward and those who has been gracious to even those unable to return an invitation.

Have a peace filled week! Fr. Ron

STEWARDSHIP AND EVANGELIZATION

LIVING A LIFE OF DISCIPLESHIP

Stewardship as a Way of Life: “Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you” (Luke 14:13-14).

One of the main principles of living a stewardship lifestyle is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in the consumerist culture we live in. This is opposed to our parish offertory at Mass, where you unite your sacrifice with Jesus’, renewing our covenant relationship with Him.

WEDNESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Wednesday Bible Study will resume on September 7, 9:00 am. The study begins with Women of the Old Testament. All are welcome to join in the study of scripture in a relaxed and prayerful way. If interested, please call Gerry Kittock at 320.420.9050, or Kay Brown at 763.333.4695.

CATHOLIC WOMEN’S CONFERENCE

Register at www.studio.org/WomensConference2022

ONE IN CHRIST SLIDESHOW

The name of our ACC says it all. We are “One in Christ”, but we are four different parishes. Our parishes are all unique and have their own traditions, events and customs that make them the communities they are. Let’s share the things that make our parishes special and celebrate all the wonderful things our ACC has to offer.

Please spend some time considering what you think of when you think about your parish? What is the activity, person, event, group, you name it, that says “this is my parish” to you? Don’t worry if it is something that another parish has, share it anyway.

Now, go take a picture and send it to me. Send me a picture you already have. Don’t have a camera handy? Send me a description instead. You can email me, send me a letter or even call me (leave a message if I am not in the office). The goal is to have this put together in time for our ACC Mission on October 2nd and 3rd.

I’m looking forward to seeing your parish through your eyes.

Thank you!

SUNDAY CELEBRATION IN THE ABSENCE OF A PRIEST

SCAP—What is SCAP? It stands for Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest. As part of our One In Christ ACC goals work with the Worship Committee, and prompted by some near-misses during the COVID months, we researched how we would respond if the scheduled celebrant for a weekend Mass was suddenly not available due to illness or other unforeseen circumstances, the assembly was already gathering for worship, and there was no time to find a substitute. in the Absence of a Priest. As part of our One In Christ ACC goals work with the Worship Committee, and prompted by some near-misses during the COVID months, we researched how we would respond if the scheduled celebrant for a weekend Mass was suddenly not available due to illness or other unforeseen circumstances, the assembly was already gathering for worship, and there was no time to find a substitute.

Using the existing Rite for such celebrations, and adapting it to our settings, the deacons and several lay persons from our ACC parishes have recently had training for leading Sunday worship with Communion if the situation occurs. Though the Rite would include the day’s readings and Communion with the Hosts reserved in the tabernacle, the Rite is intentionally different in various ways from Mass to avoid confusion and foster the importance of praying for priestly vocations.

Should this situation occur, we will do our best to communicate the lack of Mass at a given parish as best as we can, announce and post door signs that include the location of other Masses in the area, and provide a meaningful and approved celebration of the Word and of Holy Communion for those who cannot reasonably attend another church. In such circumstances beyond a person’s control, the Sunday obligation is suspended for that day. As noted above, it is our fervent hope that we will never pull this off the shelf, but it’s wise to be ready.

Communication methods will be our next focus in this effort. It has also prompted us to consider best ways to reach our parishioners in general where we can do better to keep you informed, inspired, and engaged. The months during COVID when public Masses were not available, we experienced what a central place the Eucharist plays. In these times of the national Eucharistic Revival, your prayers for vocations are especially welcome and valuable.

YOUNG ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Join us for our next Bible Study on Thursday September 1st from 7:00 - 8:30 PM at St. Francis Xavier in Sartell. We will be discussing Mark chapters 11 & 12. Bring your Bible and a buddy, you don't have to have attended previous gatherings to join!

FRANTOBER FEST NEWS

A meeting is planned for Thursday, September 1st at 6:30pm to discuss some logistics for the parish festival set-up. We will meet in the gathering place and go through items such as space and set-up requirements along with any final needs for help. Remember this all takes place on Saturday, September 17th and Sunday, September 18th. There will be some set-up taking place from 3:00pm to 6:00pm on Friday, the 16th and on Saturday morning (the 17th), likely after the race and done by Noon or 1:00pm. Set-up is NOT a lot. We rent big tents, but we need to set up some tables and chairs and prepare a tent for grilling and preparing hamburgers/brats, etc. The children's games and Cake Paddle areas are set up. There will also be a sports challenge area and the Mouse Game.

On Saturday morning, the Franny Flyer takes place – kids run at 8:30am and the 5k/10k/1 mile at 9:00am. Register at Eventbrite.com – search Franny Flyer.

There is a special Mass time at 4:00pm to kick-off our festival with fun starting out on the grounds right after Mass. We have the following attractions/events to get ready for Saturday night outside: Food Stand (brats, burgers, hot dogs, pizza, condiment table), Beer Stand, Coca Cola products, Children's Games(tickets?), Sports Challenge, Mouse Game, Cake Paddle, Raffle ticket booth, and Music Stage. Lily's Wings will be here as well as Fun Time Ice Cream. Saturday night in the Gathering Place, the Silent Auction tables will be displaying items (actually starting Labor Day weekend), and we'll have the Bake Sale and BINGO. There will be some tear down and clean-up Saturday night.

On Sunday morning the Bake Sale Continues until all is gone. A pancake and sausage breakfast will be served from 9:00am to Noon in the school gym — FREE Will offerings accepted. At Noon, the Silent Auction closes, and the Raffle tickets winners are drawn. Sunday morning, some tear down and clean-up will take place out on the grounds.

We will need help from many at various places and times, but most are just an hour or a couple hours. Please look at opportunities to share your time. There will be sign-up sheets in the gathering place and a Sign-up Genius that will be available on-line. Some of you may be recruited by friends. That's how festivals work – with your help. Thank you, Tom
