Ministry & Life Perspectives

As you recall, the theme for this Jubilee Year 2025 is “Pilgrims of Hope.” Opened by Pope Francis on Christmas Eve, 2024, and locally at St. Mary’s Cathedral on December 28, this theme and the need for a Year of Hope could not be more providential, as the hope of so many people is sorely tried by the events of the world.

We have seen tragic violence with the shootings of children at Mass and political figures across the spectrum of viewpoints. Wars continue in the Middle East and Ukraine, with growing religious oppression and violence in Nigeria, Venezuela, North Korea, Pakistan, and elsewhere. Communities, families, and individual lives are upended by arrest, separations, and deportation of immigrant populations. Prices rise, jobs are lost, diocesan parishes discuss their future. The Pope who opened the Jubilee died just a few months into it, and Pope Leo faces enormous challenges in a world so wounded by despair.

As we observe Masses of Suicide Remembrance and Healing around our Diocese this weekend, we recall too how sorrow and suffering visit so often and so personally for countless families.

The catalog of profound sorrows, insoluble problems, and flaring tensions could be extended greatly; these are but examples. I mention these not to escalate the polarization and crisis of hope afflicting our times, but to point to why we need to implore the gift of that virtue from the Holy Spirit.

As the Church makes its pilgrimage through time, we occasionally observe a “Jubilee Year” as a holy time especially focused on the forgiveness of sins, the call to conversion, and our hope in the return of Jesus as the ultimate goal of history. In calling for this Year, Pope Francis wrote: The coming Jubilee will thus be a Holy Year marked by the hope that does not fade, our hope in God. May it help us to recover the confident trust that we require, in the Church and in society, in our interpersonal relationships, in international relations, and in our task of promoting the dignity of all persons and respect for God’s gift of creation.

The Jubilee remains an observance that points us to new beginnings. Things do not need to continue as they are, if we return to the Covenant God makes for a future full of hope.

By the time you read this, the 40+ pilgrims from our ACC will have returned from our brief but rich travels to four of the diocesan Jubilee Year of Hope sites. We did some trivia questions on the bus; I include some of them here, with the answers below.

But a pilgrimage is never trivial. It is an intentional visit to a holy place to meet God. Each of these sites was new at some point, an inspired initiative to respond to the call of Christ to trust, to serve, to pray, to sacrifice for others.

Whatever tests your hope today, pray the words St. Faustina heard almost 100 years from Christ: Jesus, I trust in you. Keep praying this until you experience it as true in your heart of hearts. As St. Paul assures us: Hope does not disappoint.

News and Events From Around the Diocese

"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established..." Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little, or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

Our diocesan Tribunal is a quiet but profound voice of hope, assisting those who seek healing, clarity, and reconciliation through the annulment process. This ministry walks compassionately with individuals as they seek to strengthen their lives with the sacraments. Your gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal supports this ministry of justice and mercy. OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) Interested in learning more about the Catholic faith or becoming Catholic? The One in Christ ACC invites you to the O.C.I.A. Faith Journey The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (O.C.I.A.) formally called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.), is a process of faith formation that recognizes the uniqueness of each Individual's faith journey. For adults who have not been baptized or were baptized in another Christian tradition and desire to explore becoming Catholic. In addition, there is a process for families and children. The date/time of the sessions are adjusted based on needs of those involved. The process is concerned with the total formation of the person: learning about the Church community (doctrinal formation), living with the Church community (practical formation), praying with the Church (liturgical formation), and serving with the Church community (apostolic formation). If you are interested in learning more you may call or meet in person with any one of our Pastors, Deacons, Pastoral Associate or a parish contact listed below.

Adults Baptized in the Catholic faith and seeking to be Confirmed? We also invite you to inquire into the process of helping you to be fully initiated into the Catholic Church and receive the tremendous blessings that all the sacraments of initiation provide. Interested or Have Questions? Contact Deacon Joe Kresky.

Fall Festival Thank You

Making it through festival weekend is a blessing. Thank you to those who shared in the festival in any way. From the donors for the raffle prizes and silent auction items to all of you who made cash donations to offset costs. Thank you to those who bought tickets and donated gift cards for BINGO & youth events. Thanks to the wonderful bakers and people who canned pickles and jams and other treats. Thank you to the chairpeople who operated the silent auction, bake sale, breakfast "bar" and more. Thank you to all who showed up to work at the breakfast, BINGO, childrens games, clean-up and other duties.

All of this made for a successful and safe festival. Our festival had expanded offerings - kids games and BINGO. That's great! As we move forward with future plans, we will continue to adjust and do things that work for our parish. This depends on YOU because it doesn't happen if we don't have people from the pews making it go. Thank you again. A list of winners will be in the Xavier connection on 9/25 and some hard copies are available in the gathering place entrances. A full report on the festival will be out once all bills have been paid.
