MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From safari.....

While visiting one of the preschool rooms at St. Francis Xavier School, one of the students placed a sticker on me. The brightly colored sticker said, "Choose Happy". The sticker proclaimed a truth I doubt the student was thinking about, to be happy is often an intentional decision.

There are days when feeling happy comes spontaneously -- the sun is shining, birds are singing, a day free of worries. But the truth is that we don't always feel happy. Abraham Lincoln is credited to have said, "most people are about as happy as they make up their minds to be." To be happy amidst our struggles is possible because we believe in God's promise that he always walks with us.

Here are ways to choose happiness.

1. Have a grateful heart. Recall a moment during each day that you are grateful for, where you have witnessed the grace of God at work. You will quickly discover there is always, always, something to be grateful for. Consider having a gratitude journal where you daily note what you are grateful for, finding something different each day.
2. Remind yourself every day that you are God's son or daughter and that you are precious in God's eyes. Everything God has created is very good.
3. Wake up on your own terms. Most of us have alarm clocks programmed because of the expectations of others: a workplace, a school, or family and friends. That's probably not going to change. But that doesn't mean we have to lose control over our mornings. Wake up just a little bit early and establish a morning routine that includes time spent with God.
4. Hold back a complaint. The next time you want to lash out in verbal complaint towards a person, a situation, or yourself, don't. Instead, humbly keep it to yourself. You'll likely diffuse an unhappy environment. You'll experience joy by choosing peace in a difficult situation. Bring the difficult moment to God in prayer.
5. Embrace your strengths and choose to operate within your giftedness each day. God has gifted each of us with unique talents and abilities.
6. Treat everyone you meet with kindness, patience, and grace.
7. Find time alone in prayer. The speed and noise of our world can easily distract us from doing God's will.
8. Let's face it, life can be difficult. Nobody escapes without pain. At some point—in some way—we all encounter it. When you do, remind yourself again that God walks with you. Remember Jesus words, "come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Take his hand and let him comfort and lead you.

Choose Happy!

The readings on this fifth Sunday of Easter present us with themes of dwelling places and home. As Christian stewards, we are well aware that this world is not our permanent home. We are merely pilgrims here, making our way through the stewardship way of life to our true home, heaven.

Yet, as we make our way to heaven, we are called to make our dwelling here — whether we are in a household of one or bursting at the seams — a true “domestic church.” In other words, the stewardship way of life begins long before we set foot on the parish grounds. Stewardship starts at home. It begins with our families — our domestic churches.

The domestic church plays a key role in our sanctification because it is the primary place where we practice intimate and selfless love of other persons.

In our Gospel passage from John, Jesus speaks of heaven as a home filled with dwelling places. “In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?” This is a beautiful image of the glory that awaits us and the personal love our Lord has for us in preparing the perfect “spot” for each one of us who remain faithful to Him.

Let us respond to this great love by becoming good stewards of our earthly dwellings, making our homes true “domestic churches” where we honor God with our prayer, our thoughtfulness to each other, and our generous hospitality to all.

Let us never forget that stewardship starts at home.

COUNTRY MANOR HELP NEEDED

Country Manor in Sartell is in great need of someone who can play the piano for our Masses on Sunday Mornings at 10:45am. If you or anyone you know might be interested please contact Chaplain Jeb Reiter at Country Manor at (320) 258-8942. There is a small stipend that is accompanied with playing. The Mass is generally only about 45 minutes long. At the moment we do have a cantor that would work with anyone interested in picking the songs- however, if anyone would be interested in singing/cantoring we are looking for interested individuals as well.

We are also looking for any volunteers that would be interested in helping out for our Masses on Sunday in doing readings, serving at the Altar, serving communion taking offerings etc. Again thank you for any interest you may have in helping out and blessing our residents to make sure they’re able to continue on in celebrating their faith!

CHOIR DIRECTOR OPENING

St. Francis Xavier is a vibrant Catholic parish with 1850 households. The choir director works with the adult choir of our parish, with 25 current members. This person should have a solid musical background and familiarity with Roman Catholic liturgies, especially the Eucharist. Several years of experience with a minimum of a BA degree in music preferred. Position open until filled. If interested, please contact Mark Levandowski at mlevandowski@stfrancissartell.org or by calling 320-252-1361.
