MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From Safari.....

One of my childhood memories from summer or recess is picking sides for a game of ball. The captains tended to be the top athletes. Not being very athletic, I was of the last ones picked. Even as an adult I was asked to be part of the church softball team because players were needed. Still lacking athletic abilities, I was assigned as the catcher. With no stealing or advancement on a passed ball, there wasn't much risk having me as the catcher, besides there were few if any bang bang plays at the plate and I was bound to get lucky once in a while.

The gospel this weekend has Jesus naming his inner circle, the twelve disciples. The 12 are not among the "who's who" of rabbinic thinkers. The twelve, mostly fisherman and a tax collector, have no known skills in teaching or evangelization. Jesus instructs the 12, and then sends them out to proclaim the Good News to the lost sheep of Israel. Their only instructions --- take no cash, no luggage, no extra pairs of shoes --- or change of clothes. They are to focus on the task at hand: Proclaiming the Gospel, as they cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the leper, and drive out demons.

The theologian Kermit the frog once lamented it is not easy being green. Well Kermit it is not easy being a disciple either. It never has been, never will be, nor was it meant to be. The wand of discipleship has been handed unto us. Looking at the tasks given to the disciples, we can be tempted to say these tasks are not in my skill set. Besides the last time I checked no one has leprosy in my neighborhood and I have not seen any demons. However, as one writer notes, when we look closer, we are surrounded by sick of heart and sick of soul, the physically sick, those afflicted by their memories or by their loneliness, those unable to forgive. The walking dead work with us, pray with us, live next door, perhaps even reside in our homes. They are depressed, filled with despair and hopefulness, locked into impossible situations, unable to see options. The lepers of our time are visible on street corners seeking food or lodging, the legal and illegal immigrant, those searching for a sexual identity. And the demon possessed, struggle with addictions, with rage, with hatred with violence.

Each of us has been chosen to bring the Good News to another. Our task is to nonjudgmentally plant the seed and allow God's graces to bring healing.

(Ministry & Life Perspectives Continued)

On this Father's Day weekend, we pause and give thanks to God for the gift of our fathers. For most of us our dad's make visible the love of God and are part of the "Dad" team. They make this love visible by their faithfulness to our mom's, their interests in our lives, and modeling what it means to be a person of faith. May God continue to bless our dads. Happy Father's Day!

STEWARDSHIP AND EVANGELIZATION
LIVING A LIFE OF DISCIPLESHIP

"As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.'" Matthew 10:7

Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to "repent". Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second – invite the Lord into your heart.

Save the Date: Diocesan Stewardship Day 2023 will be an online offering the evening of Wednesday, August 23.

YOUNG ADULT ACTIVITIES

Theology on Draft

Thank you to all who have attended our Theology on Draft series this season. Please take the time to scan the QR Code and complete a short survey to help us with planning the 2023 - 2024 TOD season. If you didn't join us this year for TOD, please consider taking the survey. If you have questions or need assistance, please contact Jason Prigge.

Young Adult Needs Assessment

The Young Adult Team for the One in Christ Catholic Community needs your voice. This Assessment serves as a continuation to the Synod called by Pope Francis in 2021. Your voice plays a vital role in ensuring we are listening and meeting your needs along with the needs of others when we consider ministry with Young Adults. If you are a young adult aged 18-39, please take the time to complete this 10-15 minute assessment. If you feel inclined, we also encourage you to share this assessment with your family and friends. Your submission will remain anonymous unless you leave your contact information for a follow-up.

If you are having difficulty completing the form, have any questions, or would prefer an In-person conversation, please contact Jason Prigge, Young Adult Minister for One in Christ, for any assistance.

NEW Pray & Play

Join us for an exciting new initiative for young adults and young families! On select Tuesdays, young adults and their young children (toddler - Kindergartenish) are invited for Daily Mass at Sacred Heart (5:30 PM) and then to the playground to play. This is a great opportunity for young adult parents to enjoy fellowship while kids have an opportunity to play and make new friends! If you'd like to pack your family a picnic dinner, that is encouraged. If the weather doesn't cooperate (rain), Daily Mass would obviously still take place but playing on the playground would be cancelled. If you have questions or are interested in learning more, text Jason Prigge (320.281.9486).

PASTORAL COUNCIL

We are in need of one new member to succeed Ralph Worm for the Sacred Heart Pastoral Council. Thank you, Ralph, for your years of generous service and support for the mission of our parish community, especially during the difficult times of COVID.

As you may recall, each of our One in Christ ACC parishes retains its own Pastoral Council, with at least one member of each parish council also serving on the joint ACC Pastoral Council. The ACC Council discerns common goals for the whole ACC, and the individual Pastoral Councils determine how to implement those common goals in their own parish communities, along with attending to their own specific parish needs and programs.

As many parishes do, we will follow a discernment process modeled on that described in the Acts of the Apostles. On the weekends of June 18 and June 25, slips of paper and pencils will be in the pews for parishioners to nominate any confirmed member of Sacred Heart for consideration to serve on its Pastoral Council. You may certainly nominate yourself, or anyone else you believe would have the vision, interest, and broad parish perspective to serve in this way.

Those nominated will be contacted to determine if they are willing to serve a three-year term on the Council, which meets quarterly. Those willing to serve will be invited to a discernment evening on June 28 when the work of the Council is more fully described and any questions can be addressed. The names of the potential Council members are placed in a basket and drawn at random at that gathering in the context of prayer to the Holy Spirit. Those whose names are drawn will begin their service on the Council on July 1.
