MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From Safari.....

He finds a garage sale sign or an antique store something hard to pass up. Little drawers stacked together are always a temptation, as he loves to sort things. Visions of screws, bolts, nuts, nails, and more neatly separated items dance in his head.

Compartmentalization may well be the bane of our time. There is a tendency to separate our lives into distinct spheres — work, family life, entertainment, volunteer work, politics, religion. Each sphere has its own rules, its own values, its centers of ultimate purpose and value. The economy focuses our attention on getting ahead, family life centers on providing a comfortable sanctuary for our own, and religion on moral foundations.

Pope Francis invites us to push back against the pressure to compartmentalize. He asks us to take God to all parts of our lives and even into the streets.

Pope Francis' invite finds its roots in scripture and in the modern era with Pope Leo XIII. Catholic social teaching has often been called the church's best-kept secret. I suspect the main reason Catholic social teaching is not popular is that it is perceived as too radical for many. Why get involved in the world, after all our goal is the heavenly kingdom.

Yet Jesus and the prophets thrust into the world to be its leaven. This week we again hear from the Book of Amos, and he doesn't mince words in his condemnation of the rich and complacent who trample on the poor. Jesus shares the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. The hearers in Jesus' time would have been shocked by the ending of this story. In Jesus' time, to have wealth was a sign that you were blessed by God. Being in poverty was a sign that you were not in favor with God. This was turning the whole world upside down. One's wealth or lack of wealth was not a sure indicator of one's holiness.

Through the parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man, Jesus reminds us that this world is a place where we must respond to God's command to care for others spiritually and materially. Our faith moves us to reach beyond ourselves. God uses people and situations to challenge our greed and apathy, and we must respond in the here and now.

Today's parable challenges us as a One in Christ Catholic Community. Who are those in need at our door? How do we care for others spiritually and materially? Jesus' command to us – Be actively involved. We cannot alone fix all the world's ills, but we can make a difference in our spheres of influence.

Our faith moves us to reach beyond ourselves. The love between the Father, the Son, and Holy Spirit, brought forth creation, of God becoming one like us in Jesus Christ -- true God and true man, and the sending of the Holy Spirit to empower us. Baptized in the name of the Trinity each of us is called to mission. As a parish community we need to help meet the needs of our own members.

Have a peace filled week!

RCIA

Interested in learning more about the Catholic faith or becoming Catholic?

The One in Christ ACC invites you to the R.C.I.A. Faith Journey.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is a process of faith formation that recognizes the uniqueness of each Individual’s faith journey. For adults who have not been baptized or were baptized in another Christian tradition and desire to explore becoming Catholic. In addition, there is a process for families and children. There will be three sessions a month (date/time can be adjusted based on need). The process is concerned with the total formation of the person: learning about the Church community (doctrinal formation), living with the Church community (practical formation), praying with the Church (liturgical formation), and serving with the Church community (apostolic formation).

Adults Baptized in the Catholic faith and seeking to be Confirmed?

We also invite you to inquire into the process of helping you to be fully initiated into the Catholic Church and receive the tremendous blessings that all the Sacraments of Initiation provide.

Interested or Have Questions? Contact one of the following: Fr. Ron Weyrens, Fr. Tom Knoblach, Deacon Joe Kresky, Sacred Heart, Sandee Kremers, St. Francis or Danna Gasperlin, St. Stephen.

CEMETERY NEWS: It is that time of year again: We ask that any/all items or decorations that are not attached to gravestones or monuments out in the Cemetery be removed by Sunday, October 2nd. Items NOT removed by that time will be removed by the cemetery caretakers. The items will be held for one month and then discarded. Thank you for your cooperation. Please note that there should never be any items on the ground except for the week before Memorial Day and the week after.

FEEDBACK NEEDED: Our Parish Council has recently discussed the possibility of painting (in color) the Annunciation and Pieta statues that are located in the back of church. Because these statues belong to the parish, the council would like to hear feedback from the congregation if you would like to keep them white as they currently are, or add color. There will be photos available to view after Mass on examples of what each statue would like like painted in color. The cost for painting the Annunciation statue would be $2,500.00 and the Pieta statue would be $2,000.00. The costs to paint the statues was not included in the Finance Co. budget for this year, so if we go ahead with this project donations would be needed. Please take a look at the photos, share your comments with JoAnn in the back of church after Mass.
